Attention: Sameer Trehan
President

Dear Mr. Trehan:

The Bureau of Industry and Security, United States Department of Commerce (“BIS”) has been notified that on April 22, 2002, Massive International Incorporated (“M.I.I.”) was convicted of violating the Export Administration Act of 1979 (the “Act”)¹.

The facts that were the basis of that conviction are the further basis of the following violations:

Charge 1 15 C.F.R. §764.2(c) - Unlicensed export to Entity List organization

On or about December 15, 2000, Massive International Incorporated attempted to export items subject to the EAR (hydraulic stud tensioners) to Bharat Heavy Electrical Limited of Tiruchirapalli, India (BHED), an organization on the Entity List, Supplement No. 4 to Part 744 of the Export Administration Regulations (the “Regulations”),² without the license required by the then Section 744.11 of the Regulations. In so doing, M.I.I. committed one violation of Section 764.2(c) of the Regulations.

¹ From August 21, 1994 through November 12, 2000, the Act was in lapse. During that period, the President, through Executive Order 12924, which had been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the last of which was August 3, 2000 (3 C.F.R., 2000 Comp. 397 (2001)), continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. §§1701 - 1706 (2000)) (“IEEPA”). On November 13, 2000, the Act was reauthorized by Pub. L. No. 106-508, and it remained in effect through August 20, 2001. The Act expired on August 20, 2001. Executive Order 13222 of August 17, 2001 (3 C.F.R., 2001 Comp., p. 783 (2002)), which has been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent being that of August 7, 2003 (68 Fed. Reg. 47833, August 11, 2003), continues the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. §§ 1701-1706 (2000)).

² The Regulations are currently codified in the Code of Federal Regulations at 15 C.F.R. Parts 730-774 (2003) and establish the procedures that apply to this matter.

Charge 2 15 C.F.R. § 764.2(e) - Acting with Knowledge of a Violation

On or about December 15, 2000, Massive International Incorporated attempted to export items subject to the EAR (hydraulic stud tensioners) to Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited of Tiruchirapalli, India (BHED), an organization on the Entity List, Supplement No. 4 to Part 744 of the Regulations with knowledge that a violation of the EAR would occur in connection with the export of those items. In so doing, M.I.I. committed one violation of Section 764.2(e) of the Regulations.

Accordingly, M.I.I. is hereby notified that an administrative proceeding is instituted against it pursuant to Section 13(c) of the Act and Part 766 of the Regulations for the purpose of obtaining an order imposing administrative sanctions, including any or all of the following:

The maximum civil penalty allowed by law of $11,000 per violation;³

Denial of export privileges; and/or

Exclusion from practice before BIS.

If M.I.I. fails to answer the charge contained in this letter within 30 days after being served with notice of issuance of this letter, that failure will be treated as a default. (Regulations, Sections 766.6 and 766.7). If M.I.I. defaults, the Administrative Law Judge may find the charge alleged in this letter is true without hearing or further notice to M.I.I. The Under Secretary of Commerce for Industry and Security may then impose up to the maximum penalty on the charge in this letter.

M.I.I. is further notified that it is entitled to an agency hearing on the record if M.I.I. files a written demand for one with its answer. (Regulations, Section 766.6). M.I.I. is also entitled to be represented by counsel or other authorized representative who has power of attorney to represent it. (Regulations, Sections 766.3(a) and 766.4).

The Regulations provide for settlement without a hearing. (Regulations, Section 766.18). Should M.I.I. have a proposal to settle this case, M.I.I. or its representative should transmit the offer to me through the attorney representing BIS named below.

³ See 15 C.F.R. §6.4(a)(2).
